We just talked about what I was struggling with, and talking really helped me pick out the areas I wanted to focus on.	It was calming and not stressful.
He asked critical questions that forced me to verbalize my ideas and thus flesh them out.	He asked critical questions that forced me to verbalize my ideas and thus flesh them out.
Adam helped me go through every paragraph and made sure I had a purpose/main point I was trying to convey. Furthermore, he helped me fix several grammar issues and gave me advice on how I can frame my research better.	I appreciated the fact that Adam read my paper out loud and that he was patient enough to go through every paragraph together. It really made me understand what my paper sounds like to an outsider.	10/10 :D
they helped me by reading through my paper	i appreciate his encouragement and support	i think more constructive feedback to balance out agreeing with what i have down on paper

Adam helped me a lot by first asking me what my goals were for the session, and guiding me to identify the specific issues I wanted to resolve in my paper. This was very helpful because as I communicated to him how I felt about the paper, I learned more about the areas of improvement than I'd realized before. They read and helped me through those specific areas I mentioned I would like help with, and then wrapped up the session by doing a complete re-read of the entire paper and giving me comments on anything that could be changed in the process.	I appreciated that Adam was very calm and welcoming. It was my first HUME session, and I was initially very scared because I never, ever let other people read my writing- even my closest friends. However, Adam had no judgement and only offered feedback that was objectively very helpful and beneficial to my paper. I especially appreciated that Adam did not criticize my writing style, because that was a big worry of mine going into my first HUME session. I have a particularly wordy and adjective-heavy style of writing, which Adam did not spend time giving me feedback on. Adam only helped me with areas that I initially asked him about, and even then he did not give black-or-white answers but more so his own opinion while also explaining the possible benefits of either option. Overall, I enjoyed that Adam was not controlling of the assignment or forceful. He clearly was there to help me and it felt like the session was student-led rather than tutor-led, which was actually quite refreshing.

Adam Kiro Singh helped me with my writing issues by allowing me to clarify my writing track (as well as see my strengths and weaknesses) and organize my writing more effectively (adding certain pieces in different places, etc) to create a stronger Rhetorical Analysis piece.	I most appreciated Adam's patience and question of understanding, as he clarified my questions multiple times to ensure he understood specifically what I was asking--great way of directly answering my questions.	Great session!
My tutor helped me by going over each of the paragraphs of my essay and helped ensure that my statements were clear and not confusing. Also ensured that I was on the right track in writing my TIC>	I most appreciated the supportive nature of my tutor because it made me feel okay to make even the most basic mistakes and create a very comfortable environment.
Adam was really helpful because he forced me to articulate what I was really trying to say and I therefore got to see where I needed to make my writing more clear.	I most appreciated how kind he was and how he forced me to think critically about my writing.	I think it's alright to be more straight-forward about providing criticism, even if it sounds harsh it could definitely help.
He helped me with restructuring my paper to make it more coherent and clear.	I most appreciated his enthusiasm and encouraging attitude, since it made me less nervous about sharing my writing and getting feedback on it!	I would have liked a bit more time spent on looking at my drafts, as opposed to talking about the assignment directions, if possible. Thank you!

He helped me to realize several points in my paper that were unclear to the reader, including the main motivation and novelty, so it is now clearer to me how I need to revise.	He helped me to realize how the basic ideas behind my project are not coming across to the reader.	Thank you for your help! It was a very useful session.
He helped me to sort out what I wanted in a case study and where I should be looking for it so that it is well-connected to my sources.	He is very patient with me.
Helped me improve my writing by connecting ideas and go from big picture to more details.	Adam was really patient and gave me the independence to take the session in the direction I hoped to. He also gave important advice on how to make my sentences flow into each other.
Identify where there needs to be more clarification.	Going through it paragraph by paragraph.
The tutor helped me clarify the focus of my body paragraphs and helped me develop more coherent topic sentences	I appreciated the tutor's patience and asking questions to help me clarify and explain my positions

He did a great job acting as a soundboard and asking guiding questions that helped me clarify my ideas. Moreover, he provided a lot of help in determining where to go next and how to best structure my essay.	I greatly appreciated his enthusiasm and focus, asking questions and really trying to understand my writing topic. It made me feel more comfortable discussing the topic, and the lack of strict structure was the perfect environment for determining a natural way to organize the points in my essay. I'm glad that we were also able to put together a plan by the end to explicitly write out the order that arose, with some slight modifications to better fit the time and space constraints of the assignment.	Sorry if I sounded stunted or incoherent; I'm Week-8 exhausted.
Adam gave me a great advice on the flow within paragraph and the paper as a whole .	thoughtful advice on flow	Very helpful and graceful with giving advice.
	-Having an outside perspective (who hasn't seen my paper or topic before) to make sure that my argument is clear and interpretable	N/A, very helpful and thorough

He read through my paper and provided me with specific feedback about what worked and what didn't. He also helped bolster my confidence in myself and my paper, which is super helpful because it motivates me to actually modify and improve it, rather than just giving up.	He was super kind, helpful, and made me feel comfortable, which is super important and helpful for me when sharing my writing, which I am normally very self-conscious about, which I truly appreciate.	None! Thank you so much for your help!
